Privacy Policy

Effective Date: January 28, 2016

IntelliAuto Inc. values the privacy of users who use our cloud-based online services or access our website. IntelliAuto Inc. is committed to protecting the privacy and security of your personal information. We have therefore developed this Privacy Policy to ensure the accuracy, confidentiality, and integrity of your personal information. This Privacy Policy describes IntelliAuto Inc.'s data collection and use policy when you provide information to us. Please read the entire Privacy Policy before providing any personally identifiable information to IntelliAuto Inc.

Collection and Use of Personal Information

IntelliAuto Inc. collects personally identifiable information, such as name, address, telephone number, e-mail address, user name, and password only if our clients enter this information voluntarily into IntelliAuto Inc. online forms to register for online cloud services or training courses. The voluntary information IntelliAuto Inc. collects shall be limited to the purpose of providing services to the client. The information is used to register users, sign up for a cloud services account, ensure appropriate legal use of IntelliAuto Inc. services, provide notification to clients about updates to IntelliAuto Inc. software, data, and services, and respond to customer service requests and help provide technical support to our clients. IntelliAuto Inc. may also use your information to send marketing materials and newsletters to our clients who elect to receive these materials. If you do not wish to be contacted by IntelliAuto Inc., please contact us at info@smartmetrotech.com.

Data Storage

IntelliAuto Inc. may store client information for as long as needed to provide services to the client. IntelliAuto Inc. may retain and use this information as necessary to comply with our legal obligations, resolve disputes, and enforce agreements. Security

The security of your information is important to IntelliAuto Inc. IntelliAuto Inc. is committed to making commercially reasonable efforts and taking prudent precautions to ensure that your personally identifiable information is protected against unauthorized access, use, or disclosure. During the login process for IntelliAuto Inc. cloud services when sensitive information, such as login credentials, is entered, IntelliAuto Inc. encrypts the transmission of that information using secure socket layer technology (SSL). IntelliAuto Inc. has safeguards in place through the use of firewalls and password-protected computers to control access to your personal information and to ensure that your personal information is appropriately protected. We follow generally accepted standards to protect the personally identifiable information submitted to us, both during transmission and once we receive it. However, methods of electronic data storage and transmission over the Internet are not secure 100% of the time. Therefore, IntelliAuto Inc. cannot guarantee absolute security. If you have any questions about security on our website, you can contact us at info@intelliAuto.org.

Sharing of Your Personal Information

IntelliAuto Inc. shall share a client's information only if required by law or when IntelliAuto Inc. believes that disclosure of this information is necessary to comply with legal processes.

Policy Modification

IntelliAuto Inc. may modify or amend this Privacy Policy to reflect changes to our information practices. If IntelliAuto Inc. makes any material changes to our Privacy Policy, we will notify our clients by email, sent to the e-mail address specified in the client's account, or by means of a notice on the IntelliAuto Inc. website prior to the change becoming effective. IntelliAuto Inc. encourages our clients to periodically review our website for the latest information on our privacy practices.

Enforcement

If you have any questions regarding our Privacy Policy or if you believe for any reason that Smart Metropolitan Technologies Inc. has not followed this policy, please contact Smart Metropolitan Technologies Inc. immediately at info@intelliAuto.org. IntelliAuto Inc. will act promptly to investigate and correct any issues as appropriate, and will advise you accordingly.
